

Advising International Students for Orientation

Provided by the Cranwell International Center for new and transfer international students

---

All new and transfer international students MUST report immediately to the Cranwell International Center upon their arrival to campus.

Mandatory Orientation for international students is all day January 16, beginning at 8:30 at the Cranwell Center.